NEW HORIZONS Adult Education Services

High School for Adults program gives students the possibility to obtain secondary school credits towards a diploma or go on to Vocational Education or to post-secondary studies.

Francization Services are designed to develop communication skills. In the case of allophone immigrants, it will help develop the attitudes required to integrate into Quebec society while preparing the transition to further studies or to the job market.

We also offer services in English which provide an opportunity to explore the world of work and to help individuals to become better familiarized with the expectations of the constant changing nature of the job market and businesses.

Other services:

- ↳ Analysis of Prior Learning
- ↳ Record of Learning
- ↳ Placement Tests
- ↳ Secondary Studies Equivalency Test (SSET)
- ↳ General Development Test (GDT)
- ↳ General Education Development Test (GED)
- ↳ Career Counselling
- ↳ Job Links
